Racial Demographics

Adairsville, Georgia is located in Bartow County and is about midway between Atlanta and Chattanooga. The city's website sums up the vision of Adairsville as a place "where our citizens can safely live, work, play, raise a family and retire in a healthy, clean, and prosperous community" and the comments of local citizens attest to their success in creating a relatively safe community.

Of course, that safety is only a temporal gift. With over 50% of the people in the county identifying as "none" when asked their religious preference, Seven Hills Fellowship in Rome sees a great opportunity to bring eternal hope to these people.

To accomplish this great task, Seven Hills will be working with other PCA churches in the area to begin a church planting residency program that they hope will aid the growth of the Kingdom not only in Adairsville but also in surrounding communities.
