The village of Bolingbrook, Illinois boasts a diverse population enjoying comfortable suburban life with great schools and lots of space that is only a short drive from the amenities of the city of Chicago.

Unfortunately, only 25% of the population identify as Protestant. By planting the first PCA church in Bolingbrook, the Chicago Metro Presbytery hopes, by God's grace, to see that percent increase even as the village population is expected to grow by more than 30% over the next ten years.

The Presbytery foresees a healthy and growing, self-sustaining and self-governing, local PCA church characterized by vibrant Christ-centered worship, effective ministries of evangelism, mercy, and missions coupled with transformational fellowship and discipleship in Bolingbrook all to the glory of God.

The Chicago Metro Presbytery will also have the support of the Midwest Alliance. The desire is to see this first PCA church in Bolingbrook make disciples who will then help to spread the gospel, multiplying praise to God and planting many more churches throughout the region.
