The City of The Village of Clarkston is located in Oakland County, Michigan. "Clarkston area draws home owners because of its unique community with the rural living, homey downtown, good schools and with direct access to downtown Detroit and all the wonderful destinations up north. They can feel connected or disconnected from all of the hustle and bustle of our busy lives," said Kathy Coon, broker at Real Living Great Lakes Real Estate.

While the Village itself has a population under 1,000 people, over 21,000 people live within a 2.5 mile radius around the city. Unfortunately, more than 35% of that population identifies as non-Christian or having no religious preference. Given the statistics, Great Lakes Presbytery's vision is, with God's grace, to plant the first PCA church in Clarkston.

The Presbytery foresees a healthy and growing, self-sustaining and self-governing, local PCA church characterized by vibrant Christ-centered worship, effective ministries of evangelism, mercy, and missions coupled with transformational fellowship and discipleship in Clarkston all to the glory of God.

The Great Lakes Presbytery will also have the support of the Midwest Alliance. By the grace of God, this first PCA church in Clarkston will make disciples who will then help to spread the gospel, multiplying praise to God and planting churches throughout the region.
