Religious Preference

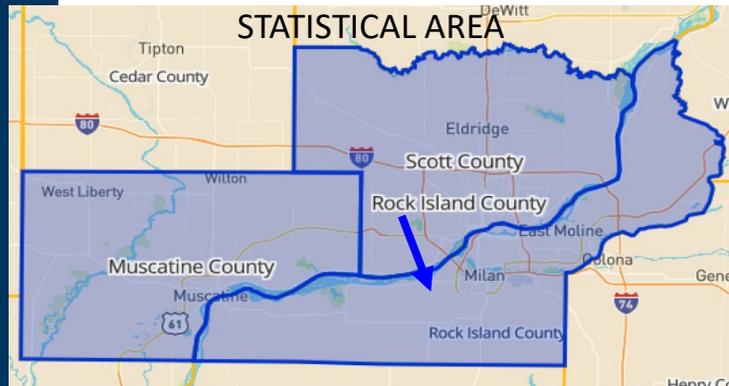

Together, Muscatine and Scott Counties in Iowa and Rock Island County in Illinois encompass what is known as the Quad Cities. This family of communities is located at the confluence of the Rock and Mississippi Rivers, where the Mississippi flows east to west.

With over 30% of the population identifying as non-Christian or having no religious preference, the Presbytery of Northern Illinois intends, by God's grace, to expand the reach of the gospel in these counties by planting PCA churches throughout this area.

The Presbytery foresees many healthy and growing, self-sustaining and self-governing, local PCA churches characterized by vibrant Christ-centered worship, effective ministries of evangelism, mercy, and missions coupled with transformational fellowship and discipleship in the Quad Cities area all to the glory of God.

The Presbytery of Northern Illinois will also have the support of the Midwest Alliance. By the grace of God, these churches will make disciples who will then help to spread the gospel, multiplying praise to God and planting churches throughout the region.
