Religious Preference

Rock Island County’s website says the area “offers a varied landscape ranging from rich agricultural fields to rolling bluffs. With low housing costs, exceptional health care, quality schools and a wide range of recreational activities and tourist attractions.” But like the rest of America, Rock Island, Illinois, has recently struggled with COVID-19 and rioting.

With more of the population identifying as having no religious preference than as Mainline Protestant, the need for the gospel is great. The Presbytery of Northern Illinois intends, by God’s grace, to expand the reach of the gospel in the county through a church plant.

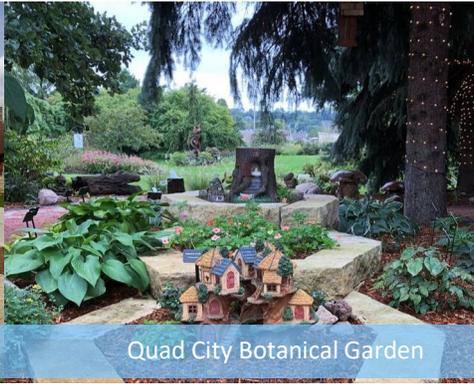

The Presbytery foresees a healthy and growing, self-sustaining and self-governing, local PCA church characterized by vibrant Christ-centered worship, effective ministries of evangelism, mercy, and missions coupled with transformational fellowship and discipleship in Rock Island County all to the glory of God.

The Presbytery of Northern Illinois will also have the support of the Midwest Alliance. By the grace of God, this PCA church in Rock Island will make disciples who will then help to spread the gospel, multiplying praise to God and planting churches throughout the region.
