Speedway, Indiana is located only 6 miles from Indianapolis and has a charming Main Street that belies the poverty rate and number of single parent homes. Even more disheartening than those tragic statistics is the fact that the number of people professing no religious preference is growing at a rate that is more than 35% greater than the national average.

It is that statistic which drives the Central Indiana Presbytery's partnership with the Midwest Alliance to pursue church planting in Speedway, a town that sees more than 12 million visitors each year.

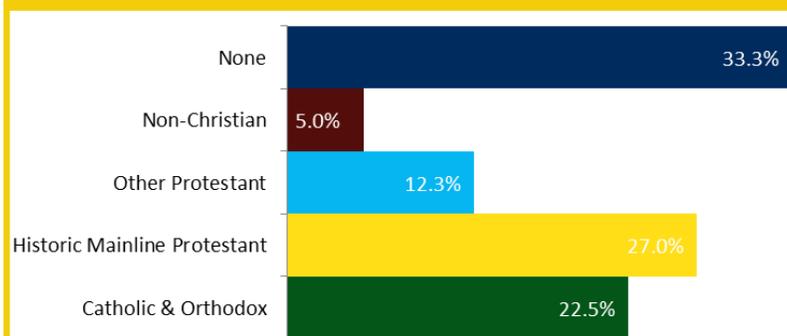

The Central Indiana Presbytery exists as a regional church to extend God's kingdom by strengthening existing churches, planting new churches, developing leaders, and caring for pastors.

The mission of the Midwest Alliance is to see PCA churches and presbyteries in the Midwest working together to plant and grow healthy and reproducing churches.

Working together, their hope is to see Speedway transformed by the gospel.
